Your DIRECTV FOR BUSINESS® account number, payment due date, amount due and our customer service number.

2 Summary

Statement date, business name, service address (location where you receive service) and your previous balance.

3 Activity

Service start and end dates, payment description, current charges, fees, credits, adjustments and taxes. Your programming package may be displayed as one or multiple line items based on your package selection!

Customers pay all state and local taxes or other government fees and applicable charges, including any such taxes or fees assessed against discounted fees or service credits.

The message area provides information on promotional offers, subscription renewals, legal notices and package or pricing updates. Check your bill for payment issues; a late fee will be assessed if payment is not received by the due date.

5 Billing address

Your bill will be sent to the mailing address on file, which may differ from your service address.
